

MEANGADH FÍBÍN ARE LOOKING FOR A PRESENTER FOR A NEW PRE-SCHOOL SERIES, WOULD YOU BE INTERESTED IN TAKING ON THIS ROLE?

Meangadh Fíbin are seeking applications for a presenting/artistic role on a new tv series for pre-schoolers. We are looking for somebody with an art background, a fluency in Irish with an energetic personality. We welcome applications from people with acting experience but it is not necessary. Candidates must be available to shoot before Christmas.

This exciting new series combining art and storytelling will see the presenter/artist travelling to schools across the country, meeting with school children and helping them put a story book together based on their own story/fairy tale. The school children with the help of the presenter will then tell this story to the pre-school audience watching at home.

Interested applicants can send a short clip of themselves along with a CV to eolas@fbinmedia.ie by November 10th. They will appear in this video themselves speaking Irish, showing they have an interest in art. It doesn't have to be any longer than 2 minutes. All videos submitted remain private and will be destroyed once the casting process is complete.

Garda Vetting will apply.
